ing news from Europe by the recamble Indian to this doctain make the process of the following:

The most important feature is the intelligence at the first of the floricon Argust that the Atlantic tolegraph florit had started on a third trial to lay the cable. The Agamemnea arrived at Queenstern on the 12th. Her officiers report that the cable broke off just below her the following:

The N. Y. Tribuce of Thursday, in its none; after 140 miles bad been paid out. The Agamemnea the following:

La Grosse I. R. Land Grant are a little firmer, with and to the rendezvous, where a first 140 miles bad been paid out. The Agamemnea the rendezvous, where she cruised for five days, in the hopes of regain meeting the Nisgara to make another trial, but most eithed Agamemnea then returned to the rendezvous, where she called the Agamem and finding her returned. Both vessel; departed on the 17th, still having 2500 miles of cable on board. There is yet a faint hope that the Orean Telegraph enterprise may be successful.

The political news is of an interesting nature.

The Campaign to littudis. The Buchanan men opened the ball for a rousing fight in lilinois by a grand demontion in Chicago, on Friday night last. All the papers agree that the meeting was large and animated, though the Chicago Times (Douglas) insists that Republicans and Douotas Democrats made up the greater part of it. We give elsewhere what the Chicago Democrat says of The Speeches of Co'. CARPESTER, Mr. Dough

ERTY, the "National Democratic" candidate for State Tressurer, and Mr. Firon, the U. S. District Attorney, were decidedly savage. They denounced Senator Douglas and his adherents, in the most emphatic style, and gave them formal notice to quit the Democratic Party. Said Col. CARPENTER: What is the position of Judge Douglas and his

What is the position of Judge Douglas and his friends? Starting out by raying that "the Lecompton fraud"—that is what he calls it—was attempted to be forced through Congress. I mak who attempted to force it, if it was attempted to be forced through? A Democratic Administration and a Democratic party. And yet Judge Douglas saya he belongs to that party.—What! belongs to a party that have willfully and deliberately committed a fraud!

A fraud consists in two things: first, an act guilty in law, and secondly guilty in intention. Now, if Judge Douglas is an honest man, he will not serve in such a party; and if he is not an honest man, we don't want him for a Senstor.—[Laughter.] Lat him take sithor horn of the dilemma, he goes out. [Cheere and laughter.]

to the sympathy and association of the party controlling the Union.
It is an anomaly. It tries to elect Mr. Douglas. Elected, it dies; defeated it dies. It is the hope only of men who cannot or will not see the strength and majeaty of a National Party. It begins, continues and ends in Mr. Douglas. The truth is, that Dougherty and Reynolds the regular nominees of the only legitimate are the regular cominees of the only legitimate organization of the Democratic part; in Illinois.

The Douglas Democrats to the April conven-Anti-Disgrass Democrate to the April conven-tion refused to acquiesce in our measures, but formed a separate convention for themselves, re-pudisting the measures of the Administration and the National Democratic Representatives in Congress assembled. They adopted a platform in open rebellion to the known will of the Demo-cratic party and its highest authorized oppo-nents. They and they alone are properly the boiters. boiters.

Judge Douglas, after taking up house with Beward, after making himself at home wib Hale, fresh with the kies of Giddings on his cheek, comes here and through his magnificent gift of parversion and assurance, charges us with haring formed an unhoy shinnes with the Republicant. With what necuitar grace and delicacy per grand an unboy aliance with the Republicane. With what peculiar grace and delicacy does this accusation fall so glibly from the tongue of the Senator? Who received the Senator with a congranulatory address? Who were the frontispieces of his recent eration? Republicans! Who have "sounded the loud trumpet o'er Egypt's dark sea" on his recent visit to Springfield? Republicans! Who has composed and daily chants the Douglas litany in New York? Thurlow Weed! who contests with Douglas himself the title of a Douglas man?—Horace Greeley, the god-father of every farce from free love to Republicanism! Who sver beard the New York Evening Post damn as with its praise? When did the Springfield Register ever afflict the Administration with protessions of friendship? When was the National Democracy of Illinois ever blistered with a sulogy from the New York Tribuse? These are speculative questions for the consideration of Douglas men. [Cheers and hisses] And yet this man, buried up to the very chin in Republican sympathies, whom he has gathered around him, talks about the Republican allies of the Administration. With what peculiar grace and delicacy

Washington, July 21, 1858.

The war department feels distinctined to call out volunteers from the Pacific, as urged by Mesers. Stevens and Lane. Col. Clark's regiment of the Sixth Infanty, now with General Johnston, in Utah, has been ordered to proceed by the overland route to Oregon. This, with recruits from New York, and the disposable force on the Pacific. will make an aggregate of over WASHINGTON, July 21, 1858.

The intelligence received here authorizes the opinion that a general fudian outbresk may be anticipated in Washington and Oregon Territories, and preparations are making on that supposition.

In point of effrontery his party is worthy of their leader. The bastard of Democracy, it claimed the heritage of the true heir—a puny, political heresy, it yet assumed the part and the tone of the true Democratic Church militant—the parsite of a single man, yet it prites of principle and mimics the unity and allegiance it has dishonorably forsaken—a fragment of Illinois, it yet assumes the karlequin in its pretences to the sympathy and association of the party it on and return home had he not trunipated. to the sympathy and association of the party controlling the Union.

Sie Colio Campbell had 48,000 men under his command, of which an average of ten per cent, were sick or wounded. He would soon want thirty thousand fresh troops. The old General bore the brutt of the harch and weather, and fought well, but had some very parrow escapes from death in battle. A London correspondent of the Boston Traveller, who is or profuseses to be an Englishman, gives a very gloomy account of the British prospects in India, and also of the conduct of British troops in that country. He says:

The Sepoy enemy no where presents a firm foot, but harasas us by a guerilla warfare, and by an obstinate resistance in straggling fortresses. Our own conduct is not defensible. The permitted conduct of our army would stamp us with eternal diagrace if we were dealing with civilized power. Our British troops rive no quarter—every action is followed by an indiscriminate slaughter of hundreds and thousands—the route of our army is indicated by blackened corpses, the prey of the hideous vulture and the jackal, and ruined villages soaked in blood. Our allies, the savage Ghookas and Sikus, are totally unrestrained—they spare neither age nor sur, and weighting maked swords, they rush upon the plunder with demoniac cries. The sack of Lucknow, and the horrors after the assault, were too horrible even for the pen of the lasses and Madison.

Amenaments to the Charter.

On the first Monday in August, which will be Monday next, an election is to be held in our city for Delegates to a Convention, to revise our Charter, The law under which the election is to be held provides for three delegates from each Ward, and the Charter, as amended and revised, is to be submitted to the people for ratification. or rejection. Few of our readers can have forgotten the interest manifested, or the excitement raised, last winter, during the contest about our

The Debates of Congress. We have spoken on previous occasions, in high terms of praise, of Col. Bunton's Abridge- Journal. ment of the Debates of Congress, from 1789 to 1856, and have noticed, at some length, the first two volumes of the series. A cursory glance at the third and fourth volumes confirms us in the copiolon heretofore expressed of the great value and interest of this national work. These two volumes include the period from 1803 to 1813, the closing year of Mr. Jypermon's Administrative for 1812, the cause which led to the debates to which it gave rise, and many other questions of interest and importance, occupy these volumer. which it gave rise, and many other questioner.

THE CROPS IN FRANCE. - The Paris Patric, & June 20, says the apprehensins of injury to the crops from the drought are entirely dispelled. A magnificent barvest is expected, and it will be three weeks carlier than usual. Corn and Flour are again going down. The vines are everywhere looking well. It is long since there has been such a promise of fruit. The blooming sea son has gone off as well as could possibly be, and the grape disease is now rarely to be met with. Wines are falling in spite of all the efforts of holders to keep up prices.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, confirms the above. He

"The barvests are begun in the middle and southern parts of France; the weather contin-ues and has been the best possible; abundant crop: are therefore rertain; and the vines promise a quantity and quality in which the whole of Christendom may rejoice. It is secertained that the crops in Spain will behave an average. The silk crop, in this and other countries is pected to prove better than was anticipated.

CLISA.—From a letter just take the kilowing filterosting passage:

"I was down in Randolph County, last week, where I was born. There are few slaves in that county, and the sentiment against the "institution" is becoming stronger and stronger. The Wesleyan Methodists are quite numerous, and are gaining strength. Several years ago, two of their preschers were compelled to leave the county, and I was told by a gentleman well action to the Valley of the Walley of the Walley of the County, and I was told by a gentleman well action to the Valley of the Walley o and lost hundreds of votes thereby; but his cour c in Congress—e pecially his speeches on the Kansas question—have won them all back. His motives in ac ing the part he did were misunderstood by the people. His intimate hierds knew that he accompanied the mob for the cole purpose of preventing personal violence to the inen—which no other man in the country could have done. These things are interesting to me; they show that things are interesting to me; and that this was less than their usual speed. Only half a mile a minute down the steep-side of Shawanguuk Moontain! 10. The memory of James Monroe.—Bis mortal remains have been removed to the glori-ous State of his pativity by kindly hands, but his destrines are immutable, though his cuemies should be legion...." Carry me back to old Vication;

Many speeches were made in reply to the irregular toasts. Conspicuous among the spoak-ors were Mr. Feberman, of Louisiane; Mr. Pri-olean, of South Carolina; Mr. J. Whittemore, of New York; Mr. Mertens, of Virginia; Mr. Warren, of Messachusetts; Mr. Babcock, of New York, and the President, who was moved New York, and the Precident, who was moved to an eloquent and touching appeal by an illusion to his native State of Virginia.

The health of the guests having been proposed, leiters were read from the Hoo. G. M. Dallas, U. S. Minister to France; and General Campbell, U. S. Gonzul to London, who severally submitted rentiments that were warmly received. Mr. Dallas submitted the follow:

He kept his resolution for a few days very strictly.— One evening he is lying in bed and wishes to alcep; he draws his night-cap over his ears, and his wife may say what she will, he hears no hing of it. The wife then tskee a candle, and carries it to avery nook and corner of the room; she removes stools, chairs, and tables, and looks carefully behind them. The busband sits up in the bed, and gazes inquiringly at her movements; he thinks that the din must have an end at lost; but he is mistaken—his wife keeps on looking but he is mistaken—his wife keeps on looking and searching. The husband loses patience and cries, "What are you looking for ?"—"For your tongue," she answere; "and now that have found it, tell me why you are angry."—
Here upon they became good friends again.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE DAILT BENTINEL, }
Saturday Evening, July 24, 1258. |
188 been a fair amount of business done during There's has been an an an an arrived on Thursday, and sold for $1 per bushel, which, however course not coming up to last week. Compared this the corresponding period last year, we are told, however, is now the established price for the best samples with the corresponding period last year, we are told, however, is now the established price for the best samples with the corresponding period last year, we are told, however, is now the established price for the best samples. ever, by some of our heavy houses, we might call it a busy week. The trade in grain has been much larger; the splitter and while receipts are lighter, the sales on sy week. The trade in grain has been much larger;
the sales on platform and in store, taken together, are much larger than for any previous week in our remembrance. Piless recognition the week at the same period, list year some that for any previous week in our remembrance. Prices detailed, the not equal to the average for each day of the past week. Indeed the spirity wheat, and of the week's an advance of full-5c on spring wheat, and of the week's in a dvance of full-5c on spring wheat, and of the week's indeed the supply has been in no way of the week. Indeed the supply has been in no way equal to the demand, buyers holding orders for varily other stroke owing to speculative movements on the strength of the larger amounts than they can get hold of. Flour has Wisconsin a acoming crop; and favorable news from abroad also had been firm at a triffing advance, with light transactions, incoming crop; and informate news from across also and the effect of greatly stimulating the market. The news by the North Star from Liverpool, on Tuesday, was of a very favorable nature in a commercial point of view.— Broadstuffs of all klods were firm and advancing, and quiet and without change. Fresh roll butter brings a litthe America's advices of three days inter-date; depresent the markets still firm with an upward tendency in prices. Bome fears are entertained that the unusual drought on the Coatinent must prove injurious to the growing crops. To this, the advance in the European markets is particularly savigued. The same cause, together with the general belief that the yield of the wheat erop throughout the United States will not be nearly as large as anticipated a western markets, caosance, with regard to the incoming crops, then the markets with regard to the incoming crops, then the markets would undergo a similar change, for none other than appearances at present, however, show no indications of a speedy change. In prices, The market has ranged through the week about a solitows:

Transactions were rather light on Monday, owing to a standard property of the part of buyers to come up to the company of the part of the

During the past week, harvest operations have cou-mended in many parts of the State. The most reliable information that we can obtain, indicates that the wheat crop, the damaged semewhat in various localities, will be eculation, from the information we have received thus apeculation, from the into machine to the far. We venture the firm opinion, not withstanding, that iave heard from the principal wheat growing portions of on winter. The 'o'llowing were among the eater in what white in the capital of th proportion to the quantity of spring sewn; is but very bage do on platform at 74c, 9,564 bags common No. Lettriflingly injured, the spring crop has escaped for the 78c, 780 bags do at 72c, 159 bage choice white at 95, 44 most part, entirely unharmed, and promises a more than smally beavy yield. Corn is doing well everywhere, though there is not a very heavy crop in the ground. If it escapes the early frosts the sield of what is sown will be, it is thought, unusually large. All the other crops are said to be doing well in most places.

The falling off in shipments of grain, while the harvest-log is going on, had the effect of producing rather a stringency in the exchange market, and rates advanced n the early part of the week, to IM per cent premium on the East, at which it has remained since with considera-ble demand. Our Banks have been discounting freely all the week to their customers, and there is rather an active demand for all good business paper on the market at fair rates, currency being quite plenty.

The New York market has been improving for severe days past, and the supply being quite exhausted at the close of the week, transactions were light, with a nominal advance in prices.
